

“Ain’t No Tragedy”

C Am F C x 4

I know this life is sad but
It ain’t no tragedy
You’ve still got two legs and
You still got two feet

I know that things are bad but
They really could be worse
You might not have much money
But at least you’ve got a purse

Am F C G x 4

This life isn’t what I thought it would be, it’s not what everyone said
It doesn’t seem to matter if I’m at the beginning or at the end.
My job kinda sucks and I don’t have money I can spend
I waited and waited for things to get good and they never did

I know this life is sad but
It ain’t no tragedy
You’ve still got two legs and
You still got two feet

I know that things are bad but
They really could be worse
Right now you could be riding
down the street Inside a hearse

They told me I could be whoever I wanted to be and now I’ve end up broke
All those things they said after all were just a joke
But even if I was rich even if I had everything I could ever want
What does it matter when one day we’ll all be gone?

I know this life is sad but
It ain’t no tragedy
You’ve still got two legs and
You still got two feet

I know that things are bad but
They really could be worse
Right now you could be riding
down the street Inside a hearse

I know this life is sad but
It ain't no tragedy
I wish you could look in the mirror
And I wish that you could see

I know that things are bad but
They really could be worse
Right now you could be riding
down the street Inside a hearse

The movies made it seem like love would come so easily
The movies said that I could be whoever I wanted to be But my life is so mundane and everyday I'm getting old
The break I wanted the vacation I need I guess will never come

© 2018 by Ava Burnham