

"Still Miss You"

By Ava Burnham

 C
It's a friday night G
you want to go downtown Am
with your friends who tell you F they'll be around
 C
you put on your G Am F
best dress and get ready to go, oh oh

The lights are bright and it looks fun but you have just one drink and those thoughts have begun can't push them away even if you try

Chorus:

 F
Cause it's been a year
 C
and you still feel blue G
and I guess after all Am
this time that I still miss you F C at this point it's not G
Even fair

When he moved on and left you behind But it's still him
who comes to my mind
And I thought I was fine
but this drink is telling me no

And you tell your friends
That you're doing fine Cause they're tired of hearing
About him all the time Pretend that you like It when you talk about Somebody else ooh ooh

And you tell your friends
That you're going home Cause you're tired it's not
That you feel alone
But you're crying inside
When you head out the door

Chorus

Break (same as verse)

And he visits you each night in your dreams but that doesn't really mean a thing just because he's there doesn't mean you still want him no, oh

Chorus

© 2015 by Ava Burnham