

“Such a Good Man”

G

He said he would be someone

Em

If he wasn't always let down

C

By his parents his friends

D C

His school anyhow

G D Bm Em x 2

And he always says he's such a good man

He's not gonna end up like his dad

Such a good man he could do wrong

You better say you're sorry or he's gonna be gone

Backhanded compliments

He says you're not so bad in his eyes

But he tells you lies

He's not the last man

You could ever find

It's time that you believed in you

He's brought you down for so long

But you can move on

There's gotta be some better days to come

He likes to drink sometimes

Says you should put some makeup on

But he looks old

he's the one who's so far gone
